Waiver

The sport of Cowboy Action Shooting consists of shooting targets, many of which are steel, with live, all lead, ammunition. Participation in this sport is done so with the knowledge that shooting firearms in inherently dangerous and it is impossible to guarantee completely, that occasional lead splatter will not enter the shooting and spectator area. Every precaution is taken by the Sheyenne Valley Peacekeepers to make this a safe sport; however, we cannot be responsible for injuries or property damage caused during shooting matches or practice. All participants and observers must wear hearing and eye protection during the match or practice while there is gunfire. The club is not responsible for personal injuries, damage to vehicles, equipment, firearms or clothing. Unsafe behavior, improper use of firearms, failure to obey safety instructions, use of alcohol or drugs (illegal or performance hampering prescription), or failure to respond to any safety command will result in an immediate call of cease fire until the situation is rectified.

HEARING AND EYE PROTECTION IS MANDATORY

Appeal Process In the event a shooter wishes to appeal a ruling, the following steps will be taken: contact Range Master, Cousin Roy, before leaving the stage where the incident occurs to file the appeal and pay the $100.00 appeal bond. The Jury will hear from the shooter and any other pertinent parties and a decision will be made based on the information heard and knowledge of the rules. All appeals will be heard and the shooter notified of the results the same day. In the event the ruling is upheld, the appeal bond is forfeited. Otherwise the bond will be returned to the shooter. Initial _____ Signing this waiver indicates that you agree with the above conditions of the match and that you knowingly forfeit the right to hold the Sheyenne Valley Peacekeepers, the range landowner, officers, members or match personal liable for injuries or damages caused while participation in shooting events. This is to include actions of 3rd parties.

If this waiver is on behalf of a minor, I have legal authority to do so.
